

- Deferred Judgment/Probation Discharge

The law prohibits discharge from probation if you still owe money to the court – unless you are on a satisfactory pay plan with the County Attorney.

If you are up-to-date on an existing plan with either your probation officer or us we will usually adopt that as your discharge pay plan, but we reserve the right to revise the plan based on your current circumstances.